DEDICATED TO PATRIOTIC SCHOOL GIRLS.

"SHE LAYETH HER HANDS TO THE SPINDLE"
PROV. 31:19.

Spinning

Song

We are spinning, spinning, spinning,
And so busily we'll spin!
While the World's Great War we're winning,
Till the World's Great War we win.

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY JANE MORISON.

COPYRIGHT.

PRICE 1/6 NET.

Fergusson & Co., Ltd., Printers, Wellington, N.Z.
Allegretto moderato

SPINNING

J. MORISON.

Voice

Piano

1. We cannot all shoulder a rif------ic. But there is the spin---ning wheel! And not the de-sire for con-quest, 'Tis not for the greed of gold; We're

Can not all shoulder a with desire
To work must be done, the war must be won; For home and our country's weal.

work must be done, the war must be won: For home and our country's weal. We fighting away with ships of grey, And war-rors true and bold!

fighting away with ships of grey, And warriors true and bold!

We It

cannot all en-ter the trench------es, Nor fight on a bat-tle field; But is to pro-tect our Em------pore, And flag of the red white and blue; So we'll cannot all enter the trenches, Nor fight on a battlefield; But is to protect our Empire, And flag of the red white and blue; So we'll Tempo di Valse, m.m. (c = 46)

We are spinning, spinning, spinning; And so busily we'll 2 willingly spin!

While the World's Great War we're winning, Till the World's Great War we win........

colla voce

repeat refrain ad lib.
SPINNING.

Spinning has been published with the object of encouraging a spirit of practical patriotism in young people; and the resolution expressed in the refrain makes the song suitable for Declaration Day.

---

BY THE SAME COMPOSER:

A PATRIOTIC BALLAD

"The Four Little Stars in the Blue"

"Give me the boys of that Southern Land,
With the Four Little Stars in the Blue."

Price 2/- net.